WAXING AND SUGARING BOUTIQUES HIT THE SEATTLE SCENE

WAX ON, WAX OFF

Waxing's got a new companion: beer! After nine years at Habitude, Karen Jahn, owner of THE WAX BAR (Ballard, 5915 15th Ave. NW; 206.789.2963; thewaxbarseattle.com), knows just how stressful the treatment can be—which is why she sells bravery in a bottle at her salon. The mod déco-all white with a vibe that combines New York chic with Miami cool—makes for a peaceful yet hip space, and we love happy hour prices on certain services (call to check which services are included, as the menu changes seasonally) from 4-6 p.m.
